Corrections on the Web Intro	Using Screen Reader Software with FAFSA Corrections on the Web
Corrections:	Skip instructions for screen reader version >>
1 Info About You	This site has been designed to allow blind and low-vision users to make corrections to their FAFSAs independently, using a web browser and screen reader software. Screen design is consistent throughout the correction form. The text of each question is on the left and the control to respond to the question is on the right. The control is located on the same line as the question (if the question has multiple lines, then the control is on the same line as the last line of the question).
2 Your Finances
3 Your Student Status	FAFSA Corrections on the Web uses three basic types of controls for responses, text boxes, drop-down boxes, and radio buttons. Text boxes are used for questions that don't have pre-defined responses (such as name, address, income earned, etc). While these fields allow for free-form entry, only certain values are valid in these fields. For example, only numbers are acceptable in the zip code field. If an invalid value is entered in a text box, you will be returned to the same page, with an error message displayed on the top, and an arrow pointing to the question containing the invalid entry. The focus will be set to the question as well.
4 Your Parents' Info
5 Your Household Info
6 Schools to Receive Results	To help you easily navigate through the FAFSA Corrections on the Website, a set of command buttons and hyperlinks are provided at the bottom of each screen page. They include the command buttons Previous, Next, Exit, Save, Review FAFSA Summary and Help. You may select this link for more information on how to use them effectively.
7 Provide Preparer Info	When you are ready to go to the next or previous screen page, please always use the Next or Previous button. The Next or Previous button will guide you to the next or previous page of the FAFSA.
Signatures	At the top of each page, you will find four hyperlinks to "FAFSA Home", "Customer Service", "General Help" and "FAQs". If you select one of these links while you are in Corrections on the Web, the application will prompt you to save before leaving. If you chose not to save, any corrections you have made up to that point will not be saved and you will need to start over when you choose to come back to make corrections.
Submit	Help topics are accessed by selecting the "Help on this Page" button or by selecting hypertext links that open pop-up windows. When you have finished reading the help topic, close the pop-up window (Alt-F4), and focus will return to your main browser window.

If you need to replace an incorrect answer with a new answer, delete the incorrect answer that is pre-filled in the answer box in the middle column of this page and enter the correct answer in its place.

If you need to delete an incorrect answer without entering in a new answer, select "Delete this Answer" to the right of each field in the form provided. This option will not appear for questions that cannot be left blank.

*If you need to verify that an answer you provided is correct, select "Answer is Correct" to the right of each field in the form provided.
